

Nature Plus Inc. has achieved the following Awards & Accomplishments:

- Received the Presidential "E-Award" from Secretary Donald Evans of the United States Department of Commerce for significant contributions to US exports (2002)
- Selected Connecticut Small Business Administration Export Company of the Year (2001)
- Recognized as one of the "50 Fastest Growing Connecticut Technology Companies" by Deloitte & Touche (1998 & 1999)
- Received two NASDA grants and one Ecolinks grant from USAID (United States Agency for International Development) for market development projects in South America, Asia, and Europe (1998 & 2002)
- Received the State of Connecticut's "Governor's Award for Exporting" presented by The Connecticut District Export Council and The Connecticut Department of Economic & Community Development (1999)
- Authorized General Services Administration/Federal Supply Schedule Contractor (GSA) for the US Government (1993 to 1998)
- Selected as preferred supplier for Waste Management – North America (2002)
- Selected as the primary supplier for USAID Road Rehabilitation Project in Central America to rebuild roads damaged from Hurricane Mitch (1998 to 2002)
- Achieved best-performing product status in a two-year study from South America sponsored by The World Bank (2002)
- Selected as focus company for a Technology Transfer Seminar sponsored by the US Department of Commerce, US Federal Highway Administration, and US EXIM Bank hosted at the Department of Commerce in Washington DC and presented to embassies of Latin America and Europe (2003)